

DEE DANIELS

Great Ladies of Swing

With her distinctive and thrilling jazz vocal styling, Dee Daniels brings to the Symphonic Pops stage an entertaining program of songs performed and recorded by the Great Ladies of Swing: Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Peggy Lee, and Sarah Vaughan.

Through a collection of timeless standards, including signature songs by each of these beloved great vocalists, Dee guides the audience through universal facets of love - joy, humour, heartache, and wisdom. Audiences and orchestra members alike are enthralled by Dee's dazzling four-octave range and the warmth, wit, and charm she brings to every performance.

The powerful arrangements, like those for Dee's acclaimed pops spectacular The Soul of Ray: The Music of Ray Charles, feature dramatic musical beds of colors and textures that provide Dee with the perfect vehicle to express the deepest sentiment of each song.

The program includes the classic hits:

A Tisket, A Tasket, God Bless The Child, Fever, I Can't Give You Anything But Love, Can't Help Lovin' Dat Man, Makin' Whoopee, Send in the Clowns, I Hear Music, Gimme A Pigfoot (And A Bottle Of Beer), I Got It Bad (And That Ain't Good), There'll Be Some Changes Made, Mack The Knife, and Bill Bailey.

"Dee Daniels is not just a great vocalist... she is a great musician. Her range of expression is amazing. Audiences and musicians love her work. When I'm creating a symphony program and I want a jazz vocal artist, the first name I think of is... Dee Daniels!"

JEFF TYZIK, Principal Pops Conductor
Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra

"Dee was a pleasure and a delight. Though her musical ability was fantastic, it was her communication with the audience that often brought our sold-out crowd to its feet! We look forward to having her return to Portland."

CHUCK CARPENTER, President, Jazz Society of Oregon

WOW! Ms. Daniels' is a consummate professional with an astonishing four-octave range. Her attention to detail, beautiful charts and charisma combine to make a night worth remembering."

JILL KAPLAN, General Manager,
The Palm Beach Pops

"...It was her voice that was in the spotlight. DANIELS' hearty tones, jazz-wise phrasing and triumphant scat showed why she's considered among the cream of mainstream jazz singers."

LOS ANGELES TIMES

"Dee Daniels delivers an evening of pure gold with her amazing talent as a swing/soul/gospel/jazz/blues entertainer. Her range and versatility are nothing short of phenomenal, and she delights the audience with her charm and wit. The charts Dee provides for her "Great Ladies of Swing" are masterfully orchestrated and downright fun for the orchestra to play. On top of everything, Dee is a joy to work with - easy-going, organized, and professional. Dee is guaranteed to dazzle your audience."
